3rd Sunday of Easter

1st Reading: Acts of the Apostles 5:27-41 – In between the event described in last Sunday’s reading and today’s text, the Apostles have been arrested, imprisoned, and miraculously released to resume their proclamation of the Gospel. As today’s reading begins, they are apprehended again. Always, there is the shadow of the Cross---Jesus’, the disciples’, and our own. Would that we, too, could rejoice in our sufferings for the sake of Jesus. 2nd Reading: Revelation 5:11-14 – In a vision, John, the Christian prophet, sees God’s heavenly throne surrounded by the elders, the living creatures, and countless angels. They sing praise to the victorious Lamb of God. All creatures in heaven and on earth join in the triumphal hymn. Gospel: John 21:1-19 – The Apostles have returned to their former occupation as fishermen---in this instance, with little success. Jesus gifts them with a miraculous catch of fish, then nourishes them with food for body and spirit. The disciples know, without a doubt, that it is the Lord. The longer option includes Jesus’ triple questioning of Peter’s love for him (paralleling his earlier threefold denial). Peter likewise receives a threefold commission to shepherd Jesus’ flock. Peter’s destiny is the locus of the final verses. His martyrdom, like Jesus’ own Death, would glorify God. Today’s Gospel ends with the command and invitation to “Follow me.” The way of the disciples can be none other than the way of Jesus.

Serving Breakfast

In this third appearance of the risen Lord to his followers, Jesus prepares breakfast on the shore for the disciples toiling in the sea. What an image! Jesus cooks. Jesus feeds them so they can go out and feed and tend the flock.

- What will this weekly meal of Communion enable me to be?
- What will this meal empower me to do?
- How can I then do the mercy work of giving drink to the thirsty and food to the hungry?

QUILT OF THE MONTH RAFFLE 2022

Our winner of the January quilt was Troy & Shelly Haudrich, February Jeff & Julie Glauber, March Esther Keefe, April Rosemary Yackel. You have 8 more chances to win.

St. Vincent DePaul Needs Your Help

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul Night-Time Drop-In Center has operated at full capacity almost every night, helping homeless men, women and children survive the dangers of the city streets. In addition, Cosgrove’s Soup Kitchen serves hundreds of hungry people each week. We humbly ask for your prayers for St. Vincent DePaul staff and clients and, if you are able, to help us provide any of these much-needed items: Individually packaged cookies, fruit cups, tuna and chicken snack packs, chips, crackers, cheese sticks, yogurt cups, cereal, Pop Tarts, breakfast bars, soup or pasta in a cup and bottled water. In addition, laundry detergent pods, paper towels, toilet paper and tissues are always in short supply.

CHILD ABUSE

Did you know... Child abuse comes in many forms. Most people identify child abuse as physically hitting a child. Neglect is also a form of abuse. Failing to provide a child with proper nutrition, housing and supervision can cause irreparable harm. Expectations that a child be an active participant in the care of home and family, or even age-appropriate jobs is a part of healthy development. But excessive demands can cross into a form of servitude that is beyond the societal norms.
