32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading: 2 Maccabees 7:1-14 – This is the account of eight Jewish martyrs, a mother and her seven sons, who attest to their belief in the resurrection of the dead. Their martyrdom took place at the time of Greek rule over Palestine. These brave martyrs chose death rather than to disobey the law of the Lord. Encouraged by their mother, the brothers confessed their belief in being raised up by God after their death. 2nd Reading: 2 Thessalonians 2:16-3:5 – The first part of this reading is actually a prayer for the Thessalonians to be strengthened in what they say and do. In the second, Paul asks the Thessalonians to pray for him and his companions in the ministry of evangelization (note the specific mention of deliverance which echoes today’s Responsorial Psalm). The last part of the reading expresses confidence that the Lord will strengthen and protect the community. Gospel: Luke 20:27-38 – Today’s Gospel, like our 1st Reading, looks to the resurrection in the age to come. The Sadducees were a sect within Judaism who, unlike the Pharisees, did not believe in resurrection. The Sadducees held only to what was revealed in the Law of Moses, and resurrection was a later development in understanding. Our resurrected life will be completely other than what we know now in this life. In the age to come, we will be gloriously transformed like the Risen Christ.
