FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

The story of creation ends with the temptation and sin of Adam and Eve. This dramatic event sets the tone for the many more stores of God's intervention in human event – and intervention that is merciful despite human weakness.

Today we sing one of the familiar penitential psalms, a cry for God's mercy we have all voiced. The psalmist does not pray as one without hope. This prayer trusts in the compassion of God and it would be suitable for every day of Lent.

Paul compares the act of "one man"; who is Adam, mentioned in the longer reading, with that of another man, Jesus. The transgression of Adam has been overcome by the "gracious gift" of Jesus Christ. The inheritance of death has been conquered by the grade of redemption. In Scripture, the desert is a place of testing and isolation; there Jesus encounters the devil. Like all temptation, this one appeals to Jesus' self-identity. The devil begins with the phrase, "If you are...". He's inviting Jesus to flaunt his identity and his mission, perhaps even challenging its genuineness. Matthew places this event right after Jesus' baptism, when he was called "beloved" by the heavenly voice and from there began his ministry. Lent becomes for us a time to remember who we are: baptized in the Lord for the work of the Lord.

St. Michael's Prayer Chain – To request that someone be added to the Prayer Chain contact Karen Mueller at 473-3401. The person will be on the "prayer chain" for one (1) month, unless the person that requested the prayers asks for longer.

Lenten Regulations

The season of Lent extends from Ash Wednesday, February 22, to the Mass of the Lord's Supper, Holy Thursday, April 6, inclusive.

1. Everyone 14 years of age or over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and all Fridays of Lent. This year, at the direction of Bishop McGovern, since the memorial of Saint Patrick falls on Friday, March 17, the obligation to abstain from meat on that Friday is removed.
2. Everyone 18 years of age and under 59 years of age is also bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.
3. On these two days of fast & abstinence, only one full meatless meal is allowed. The other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to one's needs, but altogether they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted on these two days, but liquids, including milk & fruit juices are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the obligation of the law is modified. Because Lent is a special season for all Christians, we should not lightly excuse ourselves from these penitential practices.
4. Excused from fasting and Abstinence. Those that are excused from fast and abstinence outside the age limits include the physically or mentally ill including individuals suffering from chronic illnesses such as diabetes. Also excluded are pregnant and nursing women.
