Fourth Sunday of Advent

When the prophet Isaiah declared that a young woman would conceive and bear a son named Emmanuel ("God with us"), it was a sign to King Ahaz of Judah that he should resist the temptation to ally himself with Assyria. Ahaz tries to politely refuse the Lord's offer, because he is hoping to join forces with Assyria in order to defend himself from the kings of Syria and the northern kingdom of Israel. The divine sign demonstrates that God is with Ahaz.

As a descendant of David, Jesus fulfills Israel's centuries-long hope for redeemer who would restore Davidic rule, even if he fulfills that hope in an unexpected way. Paul reminds the Christians in Rome that Christ's resurrection of the dead fulfilled another prophetic promise, this one to the Gentiles, that they too would someday be adopted into God's household. Paul sought to bring about "the obedience of faith" (Rom 1:5) among all the nations, including even the empire of Rome, the enemy and oppressor of Israel. The title "God is with us" turns out to mean that God is with all of us.

No one can celebrate a genuine Christmas without being truly poor. The self-sufficient, the proud, those who, because they have everything, look down on others, those who have no need even of God – for them there will be no Christmas. Only the poor, the hungry, those who need someone to come on their behalf, will have that someone. That someone is God, Emmanuel. God-with-us.

If you wish to take the candle home after Christmas Eve Mass you may do so, or it may be left in church. The suggested donation is $3.
