Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today’s Genesis narrative begins the consequences of humankind’s disobedience to God. God presented his covenantal promises to all humankind through Adam: he may dwell in and nurture Eden, but he must obey the one prohibition of eating from the tree of knowledge of good and evil. God then creates Adam’s partner. The woman was led to forsake the covenant by the cunning serpent, and Adam has participated. God now comes to spend time with creation during the breezy time of day to find humankind in shame and hiding due to their new knowledge.

That God is omniscient Creator has been established, so God’s question about what happened must be understood as a way to allow Adam to take responsibility for his actions. Adam fails: he blames both the woman and God! The woman likewise fails and blames the serpent. As the consequences continue, we learn of the world we inhabit. Relationships with one another and with creation have been disordered by these early choices.

In Mark, Jesus’s early ministry conflicts with those who think they know him. He teaches by telling stories through metaphor to get them thinking beyond what they think they know. He is then forced to look beyond his biological family for advocates and understanding. It is living and doing the will of God that now creates family and facilitates the kingdom of God.

Parish Picnic – Saturday, July 6, 2024

BASKET STAND: One of the main attractions of our picnic is trying to win one of the wonderful, filled baskets we have each year. Once again parishioners are being asked to take one or two of the empty baskets, located in the entrance of church, and fill it and return it by Monday, June 23, 2024. Returned baskets may be left in the entrance of church. If you have any questions, contact Diane Mueller 618-531-3957. The ladies will be wrapping Baskets on Wednesday, July 3rd. If anyone if available to help they would appreciate it.

QUILTS: Another main attraction is our Quilt/Cash Bingo. St. Michael’s always has beautiful hand-stitched quilts. Quilts may be left in the entrance of church or call Sue Walsh for drop off time.

COUNTRY STORE: If you are lucky enough this year to get a garden in, vegetables & fruits are needed as well as craft items, jams/jelly/pickles/herbs; baked goods (breads, cookies, etc.); anything sold in a country store. Be sure to label your items to identify what it is, such as pumpkin or zucchini bread, grape or plum jelly, etc. Please direct questions to Judy Tate 314-894-0055.

CHILDREN’S GAMES: If you have anything that could be used as a prize, please place it in the box at the entrance of the church. SET-UP NIGHT WILL BE TUESDAY, JULY 2nd.
